This service can help you with:

- Helping you to understand your NDIS plan and supporting you to choose the right services for your needs
- Sorting out disagreements or problems with service providers
- Support during crisis situations
- Special support coordination when you need help to overcome barriers and deal with complex situations
- Building your capacity and resilience
- Developing your skills and confidence so you can manage your service providers in future.

Making it simpler

When you have several supports, making sure all your services providers are working together can be challenging. We support you and your family and/or carers to navigate services.

Neami Coordination of Supports can help reduce the effort and stress in getting service providers to communicate and work together.

We have experience working with a range of public and private services including:

- Psychiatrists and Psychologists
- General practitioners and community healthcare providers
- Allied Health including dental, physiotherapy and podiatry
- Community services such as alcohol/drug treatment, disability, housing, family violence and other community services

Quality and value

Our experience in mental health service across Australia means we understand the unique needs you may have and the range of supports available to you.

Our experience and knowledge of local services mean we can help you to choose and control which services are right for you. We will coordinate and match you with the services that represent the best value for your NDIS funding.
